ATHI, et al. bring this action on their own behalf and, as agents and trustees, on behalf of and for the interests of all parties who may become interested in the said shipments, as their respective interests may ultimately appear, and plaintiffs are entitled to maintain this action.

AND AS A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST THE M/V CHITRA, MEDITERRANEAN SHIPPING COMPANY S.A., CITRA NAVIERA

26. ATHI et al. repeat and reallege paragraphs 1 through 25 as if set forth in full herein.

27. At and during all the times hereinafter mentioned, THE M/V CHITRA, Mediterranean Shipping Company S.A. and Citra Naviera were vessel owners, managers, operators, charterers, common carriers by water and by land, and/or bailees for hire with respect to the M/V CHITRA and the Cargo referred to herein, which was delivered to and received in good order and condition by the M/V CHITRA and was to be redelivered in the same good order and condition as when received in consideration of certain freight charges paid or agreed to be paid.

28. On August 7, 2010, while the M/V CHITRA was still laden with the aforesaid cargo, the M/V KHALIJIA 3 collided with the M/V CHITRA in Mumbai Harbor, India.

29. The M/V CHITRA subsequently keeled over and sank, and as a result the aforesaid Cargo was damaged and/or lost and was not delivered.

30. The damages suffered by ATHI et al. was due to the acts, omissions, unsafe navigation, and other faults of the M/V CHITRA, Mediterranean Shipping Company S.A., Citra Naviera, and the other defendants named in this Complaint, their crew, agents, servants and employees and others for whom they were responsible, and the unseaworthiness of the M/V CHITRA, all said acts, omissions and/or conditions having been created or occurring with the privity and knowledge of the owners and operators of the M/V CHITRA.

31. The aforesaid casualty was not caused and/or contributed to by any fault, neglect or want of care on the part of ATHI et al. nor by those for whose interest this claim is filed, but was caused solely by the fault, neglect, and the want of care on the part of the M/V CHITRA, Mediterranean Shipping Company S.A., Citra Naviera, their agents, servants, employees, and those in charge of the management and operation of the M/V CHITRA, and the other defendants named in this Complaint.

32. By reason of the premises ATHI et al. have sustained physical damage and/or loss to and of their Cargo, salvage costs, general average, and other costs totaling $20,000,000.00 (Twenty Million Dollars U.S.) as nearly as the same can at present be estimated, no part of which has been paid although payment thereof has been duly demanded.

AND AS A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST THE M/V KHALIJIA 3 AND GULF ROCKS CO.

33. ATHI et al. repeat and reallege paragraphs 1 through 32 as if set forth in full herein.

34. At and during all the times hereinafter mentioned, the M/V KHALIJIA 3 and Gulf Rocks Co. was the vessel, vessel owner, manager, operator, charterer, common carrier by water and by land, and/or bailee for hire with respect to the M/V KHALIJIA 3.

35. On August 7, 2010, while the M/V CHITRA was laden with the Cargo referred to herein, the M/V KHALIJIA 3 collided with the M/V CHITRA in the Mumbai Harbor, India.

36. The M/V CHITRA subsequently keeled over and sank, and as a result the aforesaid Cargo was lost and/or damaged.

37. The damages suffered by ATHI et al. were due to the acts, omissions, unsafe navigation, and other faults of the M/V KHALIJIA 3, and Gulf Rocks Co., their crew, agents, servants and employees and others for whom they were responsible, and the unseaworthiness of the M/V KHALIJIA 3, all said acts, omissions and/or conditions having been created or occurring with the privity and knowledge of the owners and operators of the M/V KHALIJIA 3.

38. The aforesaid casualty was not caused and/or contributed to by any fault, neglect or want of care on the part of ATHI et al. or by those for whose interest this claim is filed, but was caused solely by the fault, neglect, and the want of care on the part of the M/V KHALIJIA 3 and Gulf Rocks Co., their agents, servants, employees, and those in charge of the management and operation of the KHALIJIA 3.

39. By reason of the premises ATHI et al. have sustained physical damage and/or loss to and of its Cargo, salvage costs, general average, and other costs totaling in excess of $20,000,000.00 (Twenty Million Dollars U.S.) as nearly as the same can at present be estimated, no part of which has been paid although payment thereof has been duly demanded.

W H E R E F O R E, Plaintiffs, ATHI et al., pray:

1. That process in due form of law according to the practice of this Court may issue against the defendants.
2. That if the defendants cannot be found within this District, that all of their property within this District be attached in the sum set forth in this complaint, with interest and costs.

3. That a decree be entered in favor of plaintiff against defendants for the amount of plaintiffs' damages, together with interest and costs.
4. That process in due form of law according to the practice of this Court may issue against the M/V CHITRA and the M/V KHALIJA 3.
5. Plaintiffs pray for such other, further and different relief as to this Court may seem just and proper in the premises.
